MY MISSION

My mission is to help people expand their consciousness which enables them to have a better understanding of themselves and others.

We must first know our selves through self-awareness before we can know another.

I teach people the importance and power of daily reflection, pondering and wondering.
These tools help us become wise men and wise women.

WHAT MAKES CE CE DIFFERENT

I connect spirituality into every area of life—even politics. I call myself and others out for bad behavior. I comfortably share my true feelings and emotions. My teachings are fun. I enjoy laughing at myself. I help people laugh more and lighten their burdens and be happier by laughing at themselves. I am not afraid to delve into the darkest parts of my subconscious where my truths lie.

WHAT I OFFER

I am an expert at helping people become emotionally mature and emotionally intelligent. I offer people the opportunity to connect with the parts of themselves that they are afraid of.

Many think the negative parts of themselves are bad so they must suppress them. I help people realize that their unrecognized dark, shadow side is diminishing their joy, success and happiness. I help people create a waltz with their dark self and light self which enables them to feel lighter and free.

WHO NEEDS ME

People who are unhappy about their life after they've bought into the American Dream, people who are disillusioned about religion, people who would like to have better relationships with their families and friends by being able to discuss religion, politics, and sex in a fun, mature way. People who feel their lives are stuck, depressed, those who feel suicidal, lost, hopeless, unhappy, victims, people who want to get into the driver's seat of their lives.
